CONSIDERED the University Regulations for International Mobility;
CONSIDERED the resolution of the Board of Directors of 21.12.2021 that approves the University Single Annual Budget Authorization - Central Administration Budget 2022;
CONSIDERED that as part of the internationalization projects, a recruitment policy is active on master’s degree courses for non-EU students residing abroad with a degree obtained abroad;
CONSIDERED that the initiative stems from the need to contribute to the improvement of some internationalization indicators aimed at measuring the University's ability to attract students;
CONSIDERING that students selected for this purpose will receive a scholarship in the form of board and lodging to be used respectively at the canteen and university residences, as well as a free course of Italian language;
NOTING that the presence of these students in the courses of study helps to improve and promote the international dimension of studies and research;
CONSIDERING that the University, having consulted the Rector's delegate for student and faculty mobility, intends to re-propose the call for the assignment of 60 scholarships for the year 2022-2023;
NOTED that the budget to address this initiative amounts to € 300,000.00;
ACKNOWLEDGED the financial availability of the item of the economic budget 2022 of the Central Administration UA.AT.00.A3 - CA.04.01.09.04 "Costs for international cooperation" (obligation no. 1217/2022);

DECREES

Art. 1 - Purpose and deadline for submission of applications
A public Call for Applications is hereby issued for the enrollment of 60 non-EU students residing abroad with a degree obtained abroad in the master’s degree programs of the University. Twenty percent of the positions are reserved for students with degrees earned in Ukraine and/or with Ukrainian citizenship. Prospective applicants must submit the application and relevant documentation through the Universitaly platform (https://www.universitaly.it/) no later than 11:59 p.m. (CEST) on June 6, 2022.

Art. 2 - Eligibility of candidates
The verification of eligibility requirements is entrusted to the appropriate Academic Councils, which evaluate the candidate academically, assigning a score ranging from 0 to 60. For eligible candidates only, there is also a motivational interview with a score ranging from 0 to 40.
The minimum score to advance to the next selective stage is at least 60 points: 35 for the academic assessment and 25 for the motivational interview.
Candidates who do not obtain the minimum score in either or both assessments are excluded from the selection process.

Art. 3 - Language assessment.
Successful candidates must possess a B2-level language certification for either Italian or English. For those who do not possess such certification, an Italian or English language test is provided at the University Language Center, depending on the language of instruction of the chosen course of study.

Art. 4 - Final Selection 4 - Final Selection.
The final selection of eligible candidates who meet the language requirements provided for in the ministerial regulations is entrusted to a Commission of Examiners, which will be appointed by decree of the Rector, in the event that the number of eligible candidates exceeds the number of scholarships made available.
The Commission will operate accordingly in order to ensure an equitable distribution over each Department and to promote the international dimension of studies and research.

Art. 5 Obtaining a visa
It will be the responsibility of the selected candidates to make every effort to obtain a visa, which is an essential condition for enrollment in the chosen course of study.

Art. 6 - Awarding and revocation of the scholarship.
The selected candidates, who are regularly enrolled in master's degree programs, will benefit from a scholarship in the form of board and lodging at the canteen and university residences for the legal duration of the course of study, as well as a free Italian language course.
This benefit will also be confirmed for the second year of enrollment for all students who, as of July 31, 2023, have earned at least 30 curricular credits. The benefit will be revoked if the curricular credits are less than 30.
The economic-financial charge of €300,000.00 will be borne by budget item 2022 of Central Administration UA.AT.00.A3 - CA.04.01.09.04 "Costs for international cooperation" (commitment no. 1217/2022).

Art. 7 - Incompatibility of the scholarship.
The UNISA scholarship is not compatible and cannot be combined, limited to the provision of board and lodging guaranteed by this Call for Applications, with any other emolument provided for the same purposes, including in the form of allowance/scholarship et similia, by other public bodies and entities, including the Campania Region Right to Study Company (ADISURC).

Art. 8 - Publicity
This notice will be published on the University's official notice board and on the website https://web.unisa.it/international.

Art. 9 - Data processing
Pursuant to the EU Regulation of the European Parliament and of the Council dated 27 April 2016 (published in the Official Journal of the European Union No. L. 119/1 of 4 May 2016), the University of Salerno guarantees that the processing of personal data will be based on principles of lawfulness, correctness and transparency towards the interested party.
In particular, personal data will be collected in a manner that is adequate, relevant and limited to the purposes connected and instrumental to this call for applications and to the possible management of the relationship with the University, and subsequently processed in a manner compatible with this purpose. They will be kept in a form that allows the identification of data subjects for a period of time not exceeding the achievement of the above purposes, as well as for statistical purposes, subject to the adoption of appropriate technical and organizational measures to protect the rights and freedoms of the person concerned.
The owner of the processing of personal data is the University of Salerno, with registered office in Fisciano (SA) at Via Giovanni Paolo II, 132, in the person of its legal representative, Rector Pro-tempore, Phone: 089/966960, e-mail: rettore@unisa.it, PEC: ammicent@pec.unisa.it
